A4-sized copies of these pictures:

- Picture A Bishop Benjamin Ojwang of Kitgum celebrating the presentation of preaching scarves by CMS Regional Manager Tim Sanders
- Picture B Bishop Benjamin Ojwang displaying excitement at the sign of God's covenant, a rainbow, arching over the huts of a camp for displaced people
- Picture C Bishop Benjamin Ojwang works with women and children such as these at the camp for displaced people in Kitgum. Ready to move on, they have their belongings scattered about them.
- Picture D Benjamin Onyanga (right), who fled his village after rebel attacks on it, making Cwa crosses in Kitgum, where he and his family are taking shelter.
- Picture E Children, after their 'night commute' to a place of 'refuge', sleep under a veranda at Kitgum Hospital. Children are at risk of abduction by the Lord's Resistance Army if they sleep in their own homes. CMS partners in Kitgum Diocese encourage the use of safe locations, in which children sleep as alternatives to their homes in order to avoid being abducted, and provide counselling through local schools to traumatised children.
